MILWAUKEE:

FRIDAY AFTERNOON, JAN. 30.

Gov. Dewey.

The Ex-Governor, through Mr. Farwell, has sent a message to the Legislature, in reference to the collection and appropriation of the $8,020 00, of the Scrip Fund. He justifies himself on the ground that he had come to the conclusion from the failure of an attempt to collect it before, that unless some extraordinary and prompt measures were taken, the whole would be lost. We don't see that he shows any sufficient reasons for that conclusion, or why it could not as well have been collected, and more especially appropriated, in a constitutional and proper manner, as in an unconstitutional one. It seems to us that, while we have a number of gentleman in Washington, who receive $8,00 per day, for the express purpose of attending to the interests of the State, and who are doubtless quite as competent as Mr. Delaplaine, this matter might have been arranged without appointing him by an exercise of power, as an extraordinary agent, with extraordinary pay, to accomplish it. The action of the Ex-Gov. on this matter seems to have shocked even the old Hunkers of his party. But after all, he was only acting their favorite maxim,—"to the victors belong the spoils." Whether their indignation is all real, or whether they would like to make a scape-goat of him for the sins of the rest, we, of course, cannot say. As a specimen of the manner in which they are down on him, we cut the following from the Madison Argus:

"From an examination of this whole matter, our conclusion may be stated in general terms, that the receipt and disbursement of this $8,020 of public money was in plain and manifest violation of the constitution and laws of the State, and a dangerous and flagrant usurpation of authority. In a government of laws, the highest and lowest officers stand upon the same common level of responsibility. If public funds may be clutched and used by one officer, in violation of law, they may by every other; and there is no safety when any power is exerted superior to the acts of the legislature. This case should be made an example of, not more for itself, than as a warning for the future."

Banks.

There are several propositions before the Legislature for a Bank law, two at least of which have been sent to the public printer, but we have not yet got a sight of them. We have been informed of some of their principal features, but we prefer to wait an examination of the printed bills, before criticising their merits. Of one thing, we feel confident, that no Bank law can pass the Legislature on a less secure basis than that recommended by the Executive—State and United States stocks.

There is another question of some interest to the people of this State, viz., Will the Wisconsin Marine and Fire Insurance Company, in the event of the passage of such a law, accept of its provisions, and transact its business thenceforth, under a General Banking Law? The particular friends of the Company answer, in general terms, Yes, though they give no authoritative and reliable evidence that it is so. On the other hand, there are many who believe that this Company will not come under a General Banking Law, should one be passed. And there are two reasons for this belief, viz.:

1. This Company has not availed itself of the General Banking Law of Illinois to organize anew, at Chicago, but keeps right on in the course.

2. It is hardly reasonable to suppose that this Company will organize on a basis that requires it to pay into the State Treasury, 100 cents for every dollar of capital, when they can make their own capital, on their present basis, at an expense, probably, not exceeding ten cents on the dollar. Of course, no Bank which does not make its own money can compete with this Company. And we don't see much use of a Banking law, with this Institution standing out against it.

We shall have more to say on this subject hereafter. We wish now merely to put up a finger-board, to call public attention to a subject of vital importance. S. M. B.

CHANGE OF BUSINESS.—The Waukegan Chronicle says that it is informed by a private letter from Beloit, that four fifths of the trade of their business men has left Milwaukee and the lake shore cities for Chicago. This fact, if it is a fact, shows us the importance of pushing on our Railroad and Plank Roads to the West.

ASSIGNABILITY OF LAND WARRANTS.—The Executive Committee of the National Reform Association, at New York City, has issued an Address to the people of the United States, calling upon them to oppose, by all means in their power, the passage of the law making Land Warrants assignable. It considers the law to be part and parcel of a gigantic swindle and scheme, got up by speculators for their own benefit, and without any regard for the interest or welfare of the soldiers; and thinks that if it is successful the vast amount of public lands, which will be entered with these warrants, will pass into the hands of monopolists, to the exclusion of the landless who need it for homes.

HARBOR CONVENTION.—The Citizens of Sheboygan county, held a Harbor Convention, at the village of Sheboygan on the 22d of Jan., and resolved to petition the Legislature to pass an act appointing seven commissioners, residents of Sheboygan county, to take charge of the construction of the harbor and be authorized to effect a loan of $10,000 on the credit of Sheboygan village; also a loan of $20,000 on the credit of the county.

EDITORIAL CORRESPONDENCE.

MADISON, Wednesday, Jan. 28.

ASSEMBLY.—Prayer. Journal read. Petitions, &c., presented.

Bills introduced—to vacate part of town plats of Madison and Beloit.

Mr. Skinner moved a resolution to furnish the clerks with gold pens and Congress knives. Assembly wanted to know what the compensation of Clerks should be, first. So Mr. Skinner, chairman of the committee on compensation of officers, reported a resolution to pay Chief Clerk and Assistant Clerk, $5,00 each per day; the other Clerks, $3,00 each; the Sergeant-at-Arms, $2,50; and the officers employed under him, $2,00 per day.

Mr. Sholes moved to amend, by giving the Sergeant-at-Arms $3,50. Mr. Conger moved to amend by making it $4,00, and Mr. Sholes accepted the amendment.

Messrs. Mott, Donaldson, and Richardson opposed the amendment, on the score of economy. Messrs. Hackett and Botkin advocated the amendment, and the anti-buffalo-skin Colonel made a good ad captandum speech in favor of $4,00, and wished it $5,00. Amendment carried by ayes and noes, as follows:

AYES—Messrs. Averbeck, Beck, Blodgett, Botkin, Briggs, Cain, Cate, Conger, Catton, Fellows, Graham, Gordon, Hackett, Hasse, Hoyt, Johnson Knoll, Kinney, Lawrence, Mead, Moore, Mott, Peak, Phelps, Powers, Ricker, Root, Staats, Sholes, Sterling, Utley, Weil, Wood, Worthington, Shafter, Speaker—35.

NOES—Messrs. Abbott, Barber, Barlow, Bancroft, Burnham, Burgess, Clemons, Cooper, Cramond, Donaldson, Earnest, Fyffe, Giles, Green, Hilliard, Lewis, Maxon, McKee, McNaughton, Monroe, Murphy, Patch, Pierce, Ramsey, Richardson, Safford, Skinner, Strong, Sugden, Toay, Van Ostrand—31.

Mr. Mott moved to amend, by substituting, $4,00 instead of $5,00 for pay of Assistant Clerk. Lost, ayes 18, nays 53.

Motion to pay Doorkeeper $2,50, under previous question—ayes 16, nays 48.

The Resolution, as amended, passed by ayes and nays, under previous question, as follows:

AYES—Messrs. Abbott, Averbeck, Blodgett, Botkin, Briggs, Burnham, Burgess, Cain, Cate, Conger, Catton, Cramond, Earnest, Fellows, Fyffe, Giles, Gordon, Hackett, Hasse, Hilliard, Hoyt, Johnson, Knoll, Kinney, Lawrence, McKee, McNaughton, Mead, Monroe, Moore, Peak, Phelps, Powers, Ramsey, Ricker, Root, Staats, Safford, Sholes, Skinner, Sterling, Utley, Weil, Wood, Worthington, Shafter, Speaker—46.

NOES—Messrs. Barber, Barlow, Beck, Bancroft, Clemons, Cooper, Donaldson, Graham, Green, Maxon, Mott, Murphy, Patch, Pierce, Richardson, Strong, Sugden, Toay, Van Ostrand—19.

Message from the Senate, giving notice of the passage of certain bills in that body.

Message from the Governor, objecting to the language of the Irish Exile Resolution, as follows:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
Madison, Jan. 27, '52.

To the Senate and Assembly:

I have deemed it my duty to return the joint resolutions of the Senate and Assembly of the 24th inst., expressing sympathy in behalf of the people of this State, for Smith O'Brien and his associates in Exile, with my objections to complying with the request embraced in said last resolution, to forward a copy of the same to the President of the United States.

I cannot but think that the language and import of the preamble of said resolutions were not duly and sufficiently considered by the Senate and Assembly, before the passage of the same; and if forwarded in their present form to the President, and they are by him presented to the authorities of Great Britain, as would be necessary to give effect to this action of the Legislature, they would have a tendency to injure, rather than promote the object proposed.

The language of said Preamble, in my opinion objectionable, is the following:

"With no stain or dishonor attached to their names, except what English law makes such: (That is the loving of their native land.")

It is certainly not true, that English law makes the "loving of their native land" a stain and dishonor upon the names of Irish Exiles, and such a charge evinces a state of feeling against England, that would have an effect far otherwise than to advance the truly humane purposes of the resolutions.

I most fully and warmly sympathise with the object contemplated, and would much regret if anything should have a tendency to impede it.

Believing that the language of these resolutions was not sufficiently advised, and its import fully noted, I return them for your further consideration.

I have this day approved, signed, and deposited in the office of the Secretary of State, an act entitled "An act to appropriate money to pay the mileage of the members of the Legislature."

LEONARD J. FARWELL.

Bill from the Senate, to authorize the citizens of Milwaukee to vote on the new City Charter, was taken up, and passed unanimously, under the suspension of the rules.

After some interlocution on the subject of the Governor's Message, the Assembly went into committee of the whole, on the general file of bills, Mr. Giles in the Chair. Milwaukee Co. prisoner's bill ordered to be reported to the House, with a recommendation that it be referred to the Judiciary Committee, with instructions to report a bill applicable to the prisoners in all county jails in the State.

A bill to authorize the village of Sheboygan to borrow $10,000, and the County of Sheboygan $20,000, to aid in constructing a Harbor at Sheboygan, was ordered reported back to the House, with a recommendation that it pass. Several other bills acted on—one from Mr. Phelps, to reduce the price of license, referred to special license committee. Committee rose and reported progress.

Bill to restrain beasts from doing damage, ordered to be engrossed, and read a third time.

Sheboygan Harbor bill passed without engrossment.

Phelps' License bill referred. Milwaukee Co. prisoners' bill referred to Judiciary Committee.

Milwaukee and Watertown Railroad Charter amended, so as to increase the capital stock $1,500,000, and extend the road to La Crosse, and passed.

Bill to amend the highway law, so as to allow part of the highway tax to be worked out in the winters or spring, laid on the table.

Ordered engrossed, and read third time; bills to extend the time for collecting taxes in Union—to authorize town clerks to administer oaths, in certain cases—to amend village charter of Manitowoc. Village plat bill vacated. Bill to authorize voting on the Milwaukee City Charter, from the Senate, enrolled and signed.

Resolution to grant the pupils of the Institute for the Blind, the use of the Assembly Chamber, for an exhibition, to-morrow (Thursday) evening, after some discussion and opposition to granting the Hall for any purpose, adopted.

Adjourned to 10 o'clock to-morrow morning. S. M. B.

FORGOTTEN CLAUSE OF THE CONSTITUTION.—Patient and persevering antiquarians have dug up the following clause of the constitution—supposed to be obsolete:

Art. 8; Sec. 2. "No money shall be paid out of the treasury, except in pursuance of an appropriation."

If a high officer should receive $8,048 of money belonging to the state, and use it in a certain way, without ever paying it into the treasury, would that violate this provision?—Madison Argus.

The License Law in Milwaukee.

At a meeting of the rum-sellers lately held in Milwaukee, the following resolutions, among others, were passed:

Resolved, That we do not attach as much blame to those who are called upon to execute this law as we do to those legislative sages who created it, believing as we do, that the law itself is in advance of public opinion and not at all designed to promote the cause of temperance.

We should very much like to see the law, which was in any way calculated to restrict or embarrass the sale and use of intoxicating drinks, that was not "in advance of public opinion" in Milwaukee.

The Governor of the Sovereigns should have taken note of the benighted condition of that ambitious city and recommended the establishment and construction of some Herculean power to be applied exclusively in propelling public opinion forward, so that the enlightened, progressive policy which other parts of the State require, can be enforced in Milwaukee. This would save the necessity for the passage of a special law adapted to the peculiar necessities of that city.

When rum-sellers talk about liquor laws being in advance of public opinion, we are a little curious to know what sort of a law would elevate public opinion and at the same time not interfere with the interests of these men-destroyers. An enlightened progressive public sentiment can never live and flourish in a whiskey-guzzling community.—Madison Express.

"BIRDS OF A FEATHER."—The Commercial publishes some sneers from the Buffalo Commercial Advertiser, against the message of Gov. Farwell. It is not to be expected that the noble stand for freedom taken by the Governor, will find favor in the eyes of that double-dyed, Fillmore, Fugitive Law tool. If he had received its praise, it would then have been time for Mr. Farwell to ask himself, What servile, doughfaced act have I committed, that that miserable sheet should commend me?

JUDGE HUBBELL.—A correspondent of the Commercial, signing himself "JUSTICE," attempts to vindicate Judge Hubbell against the complaints made of his action in relation to the Blossom Bond. He pretends that the only charge against the Judge is, that he allowed an injunction against so important dignitaries as the Governor and Treasurer. We understand it differently. The chief cause of complaint is, that he interfered personally in the matter, before he was called upon to act in his official capacity! We think "JUSTICE" will find it much more difficult to excuse this, than to excuse the allowing an injunction under the circumstances of this case.

☞ The following bill was introduced by Mr. Huebschmann, on the 28th inst. and passed both houses, under the suspension of the rules:

A Bill to authorize an Election in the City of Milwaukee, for or against the adoption of a new City Charter.

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Sec. 1. A special election shall be held in the several Wards in the City of Milwaukee at the usual places of holding elections by the Aldermen of each Ward, or under their direction, in the same manner, and conducted and certified in the same way, and under the same penalties as elections are by law holden in said city, for city and ward officers, on Monday, the second day of February next between the hours of ten in the forenoon, and four in the afternoon; and at such special election, the male inhabitants of each ward of said city who are now qualified to vote for ward and city officers, may vote within their respective ward a printed or written ballot, "For the Charter," or "Against the Charter"—and the result of such election in each ward of said city, shall be certified by the said aldermen, or a majority of them, to the Common Council, who shall add up the same, and send a certified copy of the returns of said election to the Senators and Representatives of said city in the Legislature.

Sec. 2. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

The new Hotel in the spiritual regions.—A rapper in New England, of the Andrew Jackson Davis school, professes to have had a recent communication from the spirit of Ethan Allen, in which he stated that he and Tom Paine were stopping at a hotel kept by John Bunyan.

☞ An Englishman observed a stone roll down a staircase. It bumped on every stair until it came to the bottom; there of course it rested. "The stone," said he, "resembles the national debt of my country; it has bumped on every grade of the community, but its weight rests upon the lowest grade."

Grants of Lands to Corporations.

As this matter has lately been brought before the People of this State by the Message of Governor Farwell, we copy the following from the Toledo Republican, as containing some just views in reference to it:

"Projects are now before Congress for the donation of millions of millions of acres of the public lands to Railroad corporations and land speculators of various descriptions. Since the donation by the last Congress, of land valued at over $23,000,000, to the Illinois Central Railroad Company, a whole army, of land beggars, or more properly, land robbers, have sprung up in all parts of the country, giving the Land Spoilation interest an immense lobby force at Washington, capable, by log-rolling and other contrivances, of forcing their plundering schemes through Congress, and transfering the most valuable portion to the public domain to monopolists and speculators, without any equivalent. * * * *

But the great objection to the Land Spoilation scheme is its frightful tendency to Land Monopoly, laying the foundation for a powerful Landed Aristocracy, such as unhappy Ireland is ruled by, and has long been cursed with, resulting in the depopulation of that country, and in seasons of bad harvest, in the starvation of hundreds of thousands of its inhabitants. In opposition to the Land Spoilation scheme, and, as the only way of defeating it and averting the frightful consequences which must attend its success, stands the Democratic policy of free grants of the public lands to actual settlers, in limited quantities, to save the public lands from the plunderers, and to dedicate them to the sole and exclusive use of the laborers and settlers and their families. On the subject of our land policy we find an excellent article in the Journal of Man, which we quote:"

"LAND-ARCHY!!—An aristocracy based upon land, is one of the terrible tendencies of modern civilization, and the decent sort of half-and-half republicanism which seems to be all that our politicians have yet learned. The great idea that the land belongs to the people forever, and of unquestionable right, is not yet officially recognized. Our vast territories, by the bounty land bill, are thrown open to the grasp of monopolising speculation, enabling capitalists not only to retard the settlement, and oppress the early settlers of our new territories, but to draw from the toiling cultivators of all future ages, revenues in comparison with which, those of our whole Government are scanty. Let us suppose the Rothschilds, and a few other large capitalists to combine in purchasing American land. With twenty millions of dollars, which they could readily furnish, they could purchase more than twenty millions of acres. If they, or any gigantic corporation should determine to hold this vast amount and never surrender the fee simple, but merely grant accommodating leases to procure settlers, they would, if not prevented by mobs or civil war, be able fifty years hence, to draw a revenue of a hundred millions per annum from the labor of the inhabitants upon their lands. Is it not obvious to every one who thinks, that the inevitable tendency of land monopoly is an eternal subordination of the useful to the useless classes—an eternal sacrifice of the toiling, thinking, hoping, and aspiring millions, to the idle and luxurious holders of hereditary wealth, whose position and interests place them in antagonism to human improvement, and render them the steady supporters of idleness, luxury, arrogance, and aristocracy? Social arrangements and order, which ordain that one class shall possess forever the hereditary right of eating bread which they have not earned—of living in insolent pomp upon the products of the toil of others as worthy as themselves, are incompatible with the existence of a true Republic. Such arrangements must come to an end."

From Madison.

In the Senate, yesterday, several petitions presented from Fond du Lac and Winnebago Counties, in reference to the License Law, referred.

Mr. Sharpstein presented a communication from E. G. Ryan, Esq., of this city, preferring charges against the Supreme Court of the State. After some doubts as to the right of the Senator to receive such a document, which seemed to contemplate impeachment, it was finally laid on the table and the usual number of copies ordered printed.

The Bill authorizing the Citizens of Sheboygan County to borrow money to construct a harbor, was read a third time and passed.

In the Assembly, a number of petitions and bills were introduced, among the latter, one by Mr. Graham, for the Incorporation of the Young Men's Association in Milwaukee.

Mr. Sholes offered a resolution acknowledging the justice of the objections taken by the Governor to the language of the Resolutions in behalf of the Irish Exiles, which was unanimously carried.

Other business mostly of a local nature.

A new cluster of Honors for Secretary Webster.—The Madrid Nacion, in commenting upon the correspondence between our Secretary of State and the Spanish Minister, in relation to the outrages upon the Spanish residents of New Orleans, thus describes the great Expounder:

"The venerable author of the most complete Etymological Dictionary of the English language known in England and America, the oldest Presbyterian ever baptized according to the rite of Calvin in the State of Massachusetts, the most verbose and courteous of the Puritans who people the manufactories of the beautiful city of Boston, in the State of New England, in his present office of Secretary of State of the Anglo-American Republic, has answered the just claims of our government for the excesses committed in New Orleans against the house of the Consul of Spain, and the property of certain individuals, subjects of her Catholic Majesty, residing in that city."

MAINE AND INTERVENTION.—The Maine House of Representatives on Saturday, by a vote of 82 yeas to 34 nays, passed the following resolution in relation to the intervention of Russia and Hungary:

Resolved, That we earnestly desire that the General Government of the United States may exert an influence, in some wise and proper manner, against all such intervention.

CITY MATTERS.

POLICE COURT.—A rather novel and ludicrous case was tried yesterday. It wasn't exactly poetical, though we think there was much of the "poetry of motion" in some of of the transactions connected with the examination of the case, but to call it really poetical, might be considered a disgraceful reflection upon poets and poetry in general, as some of the conversation between the complainant and the person on trial was a trifle, immodest.

It might not be improper to state that the defendant in this farcical case, was a woman, charged with the penchant of the sex, (don't understand us as casting the slightest reflection on the "sex divine") viz: getting in a passion and throwing dish-water, and using the broom-stick with great facility, &c.

The defendent was discharged, as it was clearly proved that the complainant (a female) commenced the fracas, not however, until those two viragos had vented their spleen upon each other in language which outraged decency, and came near having a personal rencontre. Thus ended the "tea-fight" case.

THE PAINE SUPPER.—We learn that the Festival last evening at the Market House in honor of Thomas Paine, was attended by 300 or 400 persons, that about 8 o'clock the guests sat down to an ample supper, after which speeches and toasts were given and then commenced the dancing, which was prolonged until a late hour in the night.

TEMPERANCE MEETING.—There will be a meeting of the friends of Temperance, on Monday evening next, at 7 o'clock, at the Free Congregational Church. The object of the meeting is to consider and act upon the matter of getting up petitions to the Legislature for the enactment of the Maine Law.

COMMON COUNCIL.—The Common Council met last evening, but there not being a quorum present, adjurned to meet this evening at 6½ o'clock.

"THE OLD CLOCK."—Kirby's big Clock, which has been idle for some time past, owing to some of the machinery being out of repair, has, much to the satisfaction of the public, commenced to measure time again.—Its hands now revolve with as much regularity as the Earth or any of the planets. It certainly should be called the great "Chronometer of Time."

YOUNG'S NEW MUSICAL HALL was lit up for the first time last evening for a rehersal by the Sacred Musical Society.

CHARTER MEETING.—A Mass Meeting will take place at the Military Hall, at 7½ o'clock this evening, respecting the City Charter.

EDITOR FREE DEMOCRAT: Can you inform the citizens of Milwaukee, what has become of the Weekly Temperance Lectures, promised them at the mass meeting held in the Methodist Church about four weeks since? Has the Committee left for California, or do they expect to be candidates for office at our next election? W.

[We can give no information on the subject, but can inform our correspondent that we are publishing a series of articles on the Maine Law, which may very well supply the place of the lectures.—Ed.]

TEMPERANCE MEETING!

There will be an adjourned Temperance Meeting, at the Free Congregational Church, on Monday evening next, at half past 7 o'clock. The propriety of petitioning the Legislature for the passage of a law similar to the Maine Liquor Law, will be discussed. A number of speakers will be in attendance.

By order of the Committee.

Jan30 H. REED, Sec'y.

Maine Liquor Law.—No. 8.

MR. EDITOR: As a matter of course, objections will be made to this law; and perhaps the most formidable one of all, is founded upon a provision in the Constitution of the United States, which is repeated in almost the same words in the Constitution of our own State:

"Nor shall private property be taken for public use, without just compensation."—Art. 5, of Amendments to the U. S. Constitution.

"The property of no person shall be taken for public use, without just compensation therefor."—Sect. 13, Art. 1, of the Constitution of Wisconsin.

What is property? From some dozen or more definitions given by Webster, I select this as most appropriate and expressive, when used in this connection—"something useful." Perhaps this may express too much. Doubtless many things are recognized as property which are useless. We may learn the meaning of the term by examining some of the laws now upon our statute book, which are on all hands admitted to be constitutional. By so doing, we shall see that the same article is recognized as property to be protected, when in the hands of one man, for one use; but when in the hands of another, for a different use, the law seizes and destroys it. The tools, materials, machines, &c., used in manufacturing bank-notes, when used by the bank-note engraver are property, to be protected; but the same articles in the hands of the man engaged in making counterfeit money, the law seizes and destroys, without compensating the owner therefor. Books, pamphlets, ballads, pictures, papers, &c., are property to be protected, when they contain useful matter, and proper representations; but when they contain obscene language, and improper representations, the law seizes and destroys them, without compensation to the owner. Tables, wheels and other articles, used in lotteries, in some circumstances, may be lawful property; while in other circumstances, the law affords them no protection. So with various articles sometimes used in gambling—when thus used, the law seizes and destroys them; while in other circumstances, it extends over them its protecting shield. Hence it will appear evident, that it is not necessary that an article should be essentially useless, and evil in itself, in all places and circumstances, to prevent its being recognized as lawful property.

If the laws now upon our statute book, which provide for the destruction of the implements of the gambler and lottery vender, the tools and materials of the counterfeiter, and for the destruction of obscene books and pictures, are constitutional, then the term "property," in the constitution, has a more limited signification, than many are disposed to give it. Flour is an article of property, which the law protects; and so it protects arsenic, for sale as a medicine, in the hands of the druggist. But should an individual mix the two together, and offer them for sale as an article of food, would any one claim for the poisoned compound the protection of law? The law is not bound to recognize and protect as property, any article which is calculated to destroy the peace, or to injure the health or morals of the community, while the article is used in such a way as to produce these results. Intoxicating liquor, as a medicine upon the shelves of the apothecary, or as an article of commerce to be used in the mechanic arts, is entitled to the protection of law; while as an article of drink, whether found in the fashionable hotel, in extensive liquor stores, or in the meanest doggery of our great cities, it deserves only to be seized and destroyed. I will close this article with a quotation from a recent letter of L. M. Sargent, Esq., of Boston:

"There is nothing novel in the destruction of private personal property, for the public good, from entire cargoes of Smyrna figs to boxes of rotten oranges. Counterfeit money is private property. Dogs are private property, and some of them are highly prized by their owners; and yet they are annually destroyed, in almost every city, for the public good. Obscene books and pictures are private property. The implements of gambling are private property. Yet all these things are notoriously destroyed, without the least regard to the sacrifice which the owner is compelled to undergo.

"There is no game, at which man can play, so full of hazard, as that of which we are discoursing now. In all other games, he stakes his purse, his acres, his chattels, and nothing more; in this, he stakes all these, and—what best loss!—his peace of mind, his health, his reputation, his reason, the happiness of his fireside, the lawful claims of his wife and his children, and all his joys on earth, and all his hopes in heaven! And now let me ask, most reverently, in the name of an all-merciful God, shall the implements of such awful gambling be accounted sacred, while the sledge-hammer of the law falls with all its energy upon a few paltry implements of pasteboard and tinsel and ivory?"

If the Maine law is unconstitutional, then half the laws now upon our statute book, for the protection of the peace, health and morals of the community, are equally unconstitutional, and should be at once repealed. This is a question which must, after all that can be said, be settled by our courts, and to many minds, a judicial decision by some competent authority, would be far more satisfactory than the most plausible argument that can be presented. In my next article, I will give a decision of the highest judicial tribunal of our country—the Supreme Court of the U. States—which completely covers every principle involved in the Maine law. S. D. H.

Slaves Brought to Cuba.—A letter, dated Havanna, Dec. 31, states that four cargoes of African Slaves, numbering in the aggregate 1980 souls, have lately been landed on that island. A Spanish brig, with 700 slaves, was detected in the act of landing, and 450 of them seized and bound out for seven years, after which they will be sent to Jamaica.

The Dance in Progress.

MADISON, Jan. 28, 1852.

It is amusing to us, an impartial outsider, to witness the steps, shuffles, and movements of the political quadrilles on the Legislative boards, during the first two weeks of the session. The ball opened with a kiss cotillion between the old Hunker parties, and for a few days they were all smiles, and were as loving as a newly married couple, during the first week of the honey moon. But as the dance progressed, the music changed and new figures were introduced, and a proposed change of partners was not entirely agreeable to the newly wedded parties. An election for a Board of Public Works, and State Land officers is at hand, and the Demo-Hunkers are disposed to apply the argumentum ad hominem to the Whig-Hunkers. The Whigs had a plurality in the Assembly, and therefore claimed two-thirds of the offices in that branch, and the Democrats, not dreaming, till they arrived on the ground here, that the Whigs would be such fools as to give them anything, readily acceded to their proposition. The Democrats, having a plurality on joint ballot, now claim two-thirds of the Board of Public Works, and as this gives them the control of the Board entirely, the Whigs don't like the terms of compromise, at all. But they have selected the music and pitched the key note, and now they have got to dance to it. And as the State Register's and Receiver's offices are adjuncts of this Board, the Democrats claim that, to make the whole machinery work harmoniously, they should be of the same political complexion. And the present incumbents, Messrs. Henning and Murdock, have been on the floor ever since the opening of the ball, conversing in whispers with the managers, smiling and bowing to the spectators, pulling the buttons of the members, and groaning in spirit lest after all their vigils and entreaties, the clerks should, at last, Register some other persons as the successful candidates, and they Receive their dismissal from the public scenes, and from the public crib.

The old Board are also on hand, asking for a re-election at the hands of the Legislature, and will leave no means untried which promise to effect that object.

The Whigs demur to this arrangement, and both parties look cross and sour, and begin to make up wry faces at each other. But the old parties have chosen their partners for the session, and nothing remains for them but to dance it out, and foot the bills, while the Free Soilers look on, and enjoy the agony.

S. M. B.

THE MAINE LAW.—We cut the following from the N. Y. Tribune:

The Legislature of Maine is now in session, and an effort to repeal this noble Law is anticipated. As yet, however, we see no move made, and our friends in that State assure us that it cannot succeed. It would be sad, indeed, if 'the Star in the East' were to be eclipsed, just when her sisters are beginning to be warmed, gladdened and lighted on the way of life by her shining.

But we must not ask nor expect Maine to stand up for years alone. The contest is unequal and unfair. The wholesale liquor dealers of Boston alone could richly afford to give the average price of a Legislature to insure the repeal of this law. The Rum-selling interest generally might better contribute One Million Dollars to procure the repeal of the Maine Law than have it stand staring the legislators of other States in the face and pointing them to the path of duty, for even three years.

We must keep the enemy on the defensive. We must attack him on his own ground. We must carry the war into Africa. The Rum-selling interest of Boston, of Portsmouth, of New York, must be supplied with plenty of work at home. We must make a struggle for the Maine Law in New-York and in all the New-England States, preparatory to a demonstration on the Centre and West. We shall thus escape all danger—the danger of repeal in Maine—by meeting it fully half way.

BEAUTIFULLY SAID.—We make the following extract on the Homestead Exemption Law, from a letter recently written by Judge Dilliahunty, of Tennessee:

"Secure to each family, whose labor may acquire it, a little spot of free earth that it can call its own—that it will be an asylum in times of adversities from which the mother and the children, old age and infancy, can draw sustenance and obtain protection, tho' misfortune may rob them of all else, and they feel they are still free, still entitled to breath the free air of heaven, in defiance of the potency and power of accumulated wealth, and the domineering of the pretending and ambitious. The sacredness of that consecrated spot will make them warriors in time of strife "Those shocks of corn," said Xenophon, "inspire those who raise them with courage to defend them. The largest of them in the field is as a prize exhibited in the middle of the stage to crown the conquerer. Secure a home to every family whose honest labor may obtain one, against the weakness, vices, or misfortunes of the father, and you will rivet the affections of the child in years of manhood by a stronger bond than any consideration that could exist. He will remember where he gamboled in his early youth, the stream upon whose flowery banks he has played, and in whose limpid waters he has bathed, and the family altar where he felt a mother's kiss and a mother's love, and the green spot within that little homestead where sleep the loved and the lost.

☞ Joshua R. Giddings has disclaimed all connection with the Whig party. In a recent speech in Congress, he declared that his action with the Whig party had ceased, and that hereafter he would go with the Free Democracy.

Such a declaration was wholly unnecessary. Mr. Giddings, for a long time, has been an 'Ohio Locofoco,' and that is the meanest thing which can be said of him.—Janesville Gaz.

It is also the most UNTRUE as well as the "meanest" thing which can be said of him. Mr. Giddings was always a regular Whig, and elected by the Whigs, until 1848, since when he has acted with the Free Soilers.

A harmless duel was fought at Brooklyn, N. Y., by a couple of foreigners, a few days since.

It is said that as soon as spring opens, the President will supersede Mr. Brigham Young, by a competent and vigorous man. CINEAS, the Epirote.—The allusion of M. Kossuth, in his speech of Wednesday evening, to Cineas, the Epiroto, required some of his hearers to turn to their classical dictionaries. There they learn that Cineas was a Thessalian, the friend and minister of Pyrrhus, King of Epirus. He was the most eloquent man of his day, and reminded his hearers of Demosthenes, whom he had heard speak in his youth. Pyrrhus was wont to say that "the words of Cineas had won him more cities than his own arms." After the battle of Heraclea, he was sent on an embassy to Rome with proposals of peace from Pyrrhus; and such was his wonderful memory, that (we are told) on the day after his arrival he was able to address all the senators and knights by name. The terms he offered were, that all the Greeks in Italy should be left free, and that the Italian nations, from Samnium downwards, should receive back all they had forfeited to Rome. Hard as were these conditions, such were the necessities of Rome and the persuasiveness of Cineas that the Senate would probably have yielded, if the scale had not been turned by the dying eloquence of old Appius Claudius. The ambassador returned and told the king that there was no people like the Romans—that their city was a temple, their Senate an assembly of kings.

The felicity of the orator's allusion is not impaired by the direct and unintended compliment to himself for we do not believe that Cineas, with all his persuasiveness, argued his cause more eloquently before the Roman Senate than M. Kossuth before the American Congress.—Washington Republic.

GREAT WORK ON CIVILIZATION.

This valuable work, has just arrived at

C. OTT'S BOOKSTORE.

It is the work of the age. From a large number of liberal and highly complimentary notices of this work, from the religious and secular press, we only select the following:

"This admirable work is at length before us, and we hasten to inform our readers of the valuable addition, which has thus been made to the Literature of our country. The work is by far the most important of its kind, ever published in this country. It is in fact a complete library in itself, condensed and so arranged as to bring the whole question within the grasp of the humblest reader. It appears most appropriately at the present time, and will, no doubt, prove an instrument of great efficacy in the work of diffusing sound doctrines on the matters of which it treats."—Truth Teller. april 22

EAGLE STEAM POWER FOUNDRY, MILWAUKEE, WISCONSIN.

TURTON & SERCOMB, Proprietors,

RESPECTFULLY beg to inform their friends and the public generally, that they manufacture all kinds of

Cast and Wrought Iron Work, for Grist and Saw Mills. Also, all kinds of Machinery, at their well known establishment, Nos 298 and 300 West Waterstreet

They are themselves both practical mechanics, the one a pattern maker of twenty years' experience, The other a moulder of thirty years' experience.—they likewise employ none but the very best workmen that can be obtained.

Their stock of patterns cannot be equalled—they have all been made in this city, expressly for the wants of this State—they can and will do better work than any similar establishment in this State, and on the shortest notice. June 26, 1851.

CHICAGO BRASS AND BELL FOUNDRY.

H. W. RINCKER,

NO. 198 RANDOLPH STREET, CHICAGO.

Also on Canal street, opposite Foss' Planing Mill.

THE Proprietor of this establishment is now prepared to cast bells of all sizes. He would particularly invite those who wish to purchase Church Bells, to those of his manufacture. His bells will be sold on as reasonable terms as they can be purchased from the east, or from agents of eastern establishments. They will be sold cheaper in fact, because he can make as good a bell, that will give as large a volume of sound as those of eastern manufacture, with one-fourth less weight of metal, and this proportion of money is thus saved in the purchase of his bells. He warrants them not to break for one year with proper usage, and should one fail or not prove to be as good as represented, it may be returned to his shop, and be made good without expense to the purchaser, by a re-cast; or be replaced by a new one. If one should break any time during his life, he will re-cast it for half the expense of casting. Western people will see the advantage in dealing with a western man, and patronizing western interests.

Mr Rincker is a German, a bell founder by profession, and he is confident that he thoroughly understands his business.

He will cast bells to any key or tone that may be desired; he can also cast his bells to chime in harmony. Heretofore the chiming bells used in this country have been brought from Europe; but he is able to make them as correct and musical in tone as any that may be imported.

His bells have taken the premiums at the two last Fairs of the Chicago Mechanics' Institute—the last Fair awarding him a gold medal. The following is the copy of the report of the committee on the bell submitted for inspection to the Fair of May, 1850:

Article 11, Class No 6: Church Bells.

A bell of 740 pounds, by H W Rincker, of this city, is well made and a smooth casting. It exhibits a great degree of skill in its manufacture; has an admirable tone and throws a greater volume of sound than any bell of its size; a trial was had between the above bell and one manufactured by Mr Meneely, of Troy, N Y, the latter being considerably the heavier of the two—955 pounds. The arrangement for ringing Mr Rincker's bell was temporary and by far inferior to that of Mr Meneely's, notwithstanding which we believe that there was but little difference in the distance that the two bells could be heard, and that the tone of Mr Rincker's bell was by far the most pleasing to the ear. A Gold Medal was awarded to Mr Rincker.

The above is a true copy of the Report.

G R SLOAT, Secretary.

Board Directors Chicago Mechanics Institute

Mr Rincker is also prepared to do all kinds of Brass work, casting and furnishing, on short notice and in good style, such as machinery, magnetic machines, physical instruments, soda fountains, beer pumps, stop-cocks, oil globes, etc, etc

Also heavy Copper work for all purposes.

Old Brass and Copper purchased, and taken in exchange for bells, at the market prices.

Chicago, 1851

GRECIAN FANCHERONIAN DROPS.

A sure and safe remedy for, and will positively cure Sick Headache, Chills and Fever, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhœa, Sea Sickness, Cholera, and Cholera Infantum, and restore a healthy action to the liver, without a particle of calomel, mercury, quinine or morphine entering into their compound. They do not purport to be a remedy for all manner of diseases that flesh is heir to, but experience warrants us in saying the above they will positively cure. They will also correct all derangement of the stomach, and relieve from those aches and pains throughout the system commonly called rheumatism. It is an excellent remedy for the Gravel, and as a Vermifuge or Worm medicine, there is none better.

Prepared only by Dr J S FANCHER, 140 Fulton street, New York, a few doors from Broadway.

HEALTH IS WEALTH.

THE GRAEFENBERG COMPANY'S

UNRIVALLED and universally used Medicines, have long received the approbation and patronage of those in pursuit of Health. If there are any who do not know their virtues, or doubt their efficacy, it is only requested that they will make a trial of them. The Company would call the attention of the Public to the innumerable Certificates (unbought) from the most responsible men, (including many names among the regular Faculty,) which they preserve on file at their office.

These Standard Medicines may be found at wholesale or retail, at the office of the Northwestern Agency.

23 WISCONSIN STREET, MILWAUKEE,

and in every Town and Village in the State.

☞ They may be depended upon with the utmost confidence. ☜

The following series have been before the community for more than five years, and are compounded from ingredients which have been thoroughly tested by scientific chemists:

The Græfenberg Dysentery Syrup.

This extraordinary article is a speedy and infallible remedy in diarrhœa, bloody flux, cholera morbus, cholera infantum, and the Asiatic cholera, and should be taken with the first symptoms, viz: vomiting and diarrhœa. Now is the season for its use, and it should be in every family, ready for any emergency. It is purely vegetable, and harmless in itself, and never fails to cure the worst cases, and generally in a few hours.

The Græfenberg Vegetable Pills,

Are particularly valuable for the prevention and cure of Fevers in general, all Bilious and Liver Complaints, general debility, sick headache, dyspepsia, heart burn, costiveness, and in fine, for all ordinary family uses. To their great virtues, thousands of families in this State have testified.

The Græfenberg Green Mountain Ointment,

As a pain extractor, cannot be excelled. For the cure of burns, wounds, sprains, sores, rheumatism, and outward affections of all kinds, it knows no rival. Its power to relieve pain and reduce inflammation, gives it a distinguishing feature over all other Ointment.

MARSHALL'S UTERINE CATHOLICON,

May, without exaggeration, be termed one of the most extraordinary Medicines of the age. Its cures of the distressing ills incident to Females, have been most useful and gratifying. It is prepared by Dr. Theo. Pomeroy, of Utica, and no ill effect can result from its use, and a cure is certain in most cases. None who are afflicted should be prevented, from motives of delicacy, from giving it a thorough trial, in cases of Prolapsis Uteri. All who have used it, unhesitatingly pronounce it the greatest boon which has been given the sex.

The other Græfenberg Medicines are the Eye Lotion, Health Bitters, Consumptive Balm, Children's Panacea, Fever & Ague Pills, Libby's Pile Ointment, Sarsaparilla Compound.

The Graefenberg Manual of Health,

A complete hand-book of Medicine, for families, containing 300 pages. Price 25 cents—emphatically the most valuable book of the day. Should be a volume for reference in the library of every family.

☞ Full directions go with the Græfenberg Medicines, a constant supply of which may be always found at the Company's Agency.

A NEW ARTICLE!

JOHNSON'S CHEMICAL

HAIR INVIGORATOR,

To prevent baldness, and to restore the hair that has fallen off or become thin, and to cure effectually Scurf or Dandruff.

Prepared only by S. JOHNSON, Jr, 151 East Water street, Milwaukee.

FOR THE TOILET.

THE Invigorator is considered infinitely better than oil or grease for the hair, and is an article in which a cleansing and purifying wash is beautifully blended with a most delicate, silky and glossy moisture for the hair; never before attained, yet free from animal grease or essential oils. It clears the pores of the skin, causes a healthy action of the blood vessels, nerves, &c, which free the hair, thereby preventing baldness and gray hair, entirely frees the skin from scurf, dandruff, and other cutaneous diseases, disposes the hair to curl, and keeps it so; will positively change the hardest hair into the most soft, healthy, glossy state; also imparts to it a darker color, and the free use of it will keep both the skin and hair in a healthy and luxuriant state until the latest period of life.

Ladies will find the Invigorator a great addition to the Toilet, both on account of its delicate and agreeable perfume, and the great facilities it affords in dressing the hair, which, when moist with the Invigorator, can be dressed in any required form, so as to preserve its place, whether plain or in curls. When used on children's heads, it lays the foundation for a good head of hair. nov24
